- Update on Town Business
 - Mayor Simpson stated that it has been a busy few weeks. Carly Jensen is becoming very concerned about the water from the Fire Department for the July 4th Parade. Simpson suggested that from Dad's Bar north be the no water zone, he will discuss this with the Firemen.
 - Simpson mentioned that he has had several individuals contact him regarding the old cheese factory lots.
 - The Town of Thayne had a 5 year old agreement to vacate Heap Drive but there is now one hold up with the Pape family. When the Hemmert family owned the property they agreed to vacate the road but the property was sold to the Pape's without the agreement finalized and the Pape's have stated that they will not agree to vacate the road at this time. American Sportsman's is discussing with their legal counsel on the options now available to them.
 - Mayor Simpson asked to schedule a workshop/special meeting regarding the zoning of the Town of Thayne. June 12th, 2019 at 6pm all public is invited.
 - Mayor Simpson has been approached by a financial advisor to help the Town manage our money and funds and to invest them smartly. Currently the Town has money in a checking account that yields .3% interest. Mayor Simpson will meet with the advisor and report back to the Council.
