Public Comments

- A Lincoln County resident came to the Thayne Town Council meeting to express his support of the 6th Penny Sales Tax.

Councilman Wicks

- EMT Report
 - The EMT's are getting the bumper on MS 314 cut down so that both MS 314 and the new rig will fit in the garage. The new rig is currently getting the radios and lifts transferred over and installed. Alpine Fire/EMS is holding an EMT basic course and the Thayne Ambulance Service is hopeful to get a few new EMTs from it. Annual Truck-r-Treat is scheduled for October 31st at 6pm-Thayne Holdaway School.
- Fire Department Report
 - Currently working on grants for new SCBAs and a new tanker truck. The fire district is still in the works.

Councilman Woolley

- Streets Report
 - Dad's Bar and Steakhouse is installing a new fire suppression system, the t-cap and asphalt is to be installed within the next week.

Councilman Heward

- Recreation report
 - Football season is now over and volleyball has just begun.
- Water Report
 - A new water connection for Dad's Bar and Steakhouse is currently being installed. The Town has finally received approval for the new screen boxes.

- Community Center Report
 - Fixed heating issues in the Library and the DMV confusion has been fixed.

Councilman Schwab

- Sewer Report
 - Cliff is to be getting the fence around the Sewer Plant worked out to be fixed. The shipping container has been moved from the shop to the Sewer Plant.

Mayor Lainhart

- Ordinance Codification
 - Mayor Lainhart and Council had a discussion on the documents that were received from Sterling Codifiers and the benefits to the Town of Thayne to have the current ordinance book codified.

Motion to contract with Sterling Codifiers for ordinance codification and to have the ordinances available online.
